

SOCIETY

A VERY interesting couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Neville of California, who arrived on the Great Northern for a four-week stay here. Of their wedding, which was a notable event, the San Francisco Examiner of January 5 said:

"Surrounded by about 200 of their friends, Miss Corenna de Pue and Jack Neville were married at noon yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar de Pue on Sacramento street. The Rev. William K. Guthrie officiated, and afterwards a wedding breakfast was served and from there Mr. and Mrs. Neville left for Honolulu, sailing on the Great Northern at 4 o'clock."

It was entirely a Christmas wedding with red and gold adorning the house in a most artistic style. The altar, which was built on a platform, was covered with gold brocade, with festoons of red berries and garlands of gilded leaves, in empire style, adorning the altar on the sides and front, and overhead were the same garlands of vivid hues, with hundreds of poinsettias in gilded bowls on the altar, and other massive bowls, about four feet high, at the sides of the altar.

Renaissance candlesticks of brass held tall candles that were the only illumination in the room. Throughout the other rooms the same vivid crimson and gold decorations were used to charming effect. Christmas greens, entwined with gilded leaves, festooned the reception room, with brass jardinières holding poinsettias here and there.

The bride, who is a very pretty girl, tall and dainty, with dark brown hair and a face sparkling with vivacity, was given away by her father. Her gown was of silver lace, in deep flounces, with a train coming over the flounces of satin and cloth of silver, the silvery metal fabric forming the gown itself. The long veil fell to the end of the train. The shower bouquet was of orchids and white gardenias.

Miss Elva de Pue was her sister's only attendant and George Bowles was best man. Miss de Pue wore plain cloth of silver, draped and made up with tulle and pearls. Mrs. de Pue was gowned in black Chantilly lace over lavender satin.

The bride's table was a pretty arrangement of azaleas in pink, rose and white heather and bouquets of snowdrops, forming a picture of springtime freshness. The guests about the table were a coterie of the bride's intimate friends. They were Mr. and Mrs. Algernon Gibson, the Misses Ruth Zelle, Beatrice Nickel, Marie Louise Black, Genevieve Bothin, Gertrude Hopkins, Arabella Schwerin, Elva de Pue, Phyllis de Young and the Messrs. George Bowles, Corbett Moody, Frederick Van Sicken, Homer Curran, William Parrott, Daniel Volkman, Nlon Tucker, Alfred Humphreys and Ernest Cleve.

All of the young people at the bridal table, with some of the other guests at the wedding, came to the Great Northern to see the newlyweds off. Mrs. Neville wore a smart seal brown wool velvet tailor frock, trimmed with beaver fur, and a purple mushroom sailor, with a huge bunch of orchids on the coat—in fact, all of the girls at the boat seemed to be wearing parts of the wedding bouquet, as all of them had on bunches of orchids, gardenias and the like.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Neville, Californians, here on their honeymoon.

Miss Beatrice Nickel came near being taken along on the voyage, remaining on board after the command to clear had been given. Her friends down below laughed gleefully and shouted on her voyage to her.

Just as the last blast was blown, the boat broke away from the thousands of gay serpentine ribbons that held her to the crowd on the dock and as there were several other bridal couples on board there was a bombardment of rice from countless small bags, and not a few landed on the upper deck, with flowers tied to the bags. It was gaily amusing and picturesque.

Mr. and Mrs. Neville will return in about five weeks and will make their home at Del Monte, where young Neville is with the Pacific Improvement Company. He is a son of the late Captain and Mrs. John P. Neville of Oakland and was for a time golf champion of California.

APPROACHING NUPTIALS OF MUCH INTEREST

Society is interested in the approaching marriage of Miss Breta Hills of Lincoln, Nebraska, and Mr. Walter Duisenberg of Honolulu, cards for which reached Honolulu this week.

Mr. Duisenberg left on the Great Northern for the East, where he will claim his bride January 30. Miss Hills is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacob Hills, prominent and wealthy people of Lincoln, and is a niece of Miss Marietta Hills of Makiki street. Last spring she spent several weeks at the Pleasanton in company with her friend, Miss Marjorie Agnew, and it was during this visit that she, like many another girl from the mainland when she sailed for home, left a promise to return.

The marriage ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Duisenberg and his bride will leave at once for Honolulu and will be at home to their friends here after March 1.

OUTDOOR CIRCLE LUNCHEON

Plans for the Outdoor Circle's "stunt" luncheon next Saturday on the Roof Garden, Young hotel, are rapidly maturing. Mrs. Isaac Cox is to be toastmistress and Mrs. A. Lewis, Jr., has charge of the stunts. The following committees are announced:

In full charge—Mrs. C. C. von Hamm and Miss Bertha R. Young. Decorations—Mrs. T. J. King, Mrs. C. M. V. Foster, Mrs. R. W. Anderson.

Annual invitations and dues—Mrs. A. E. Murphy, Mrs. M. F. Prosser, Mrs. E. D. Kilbourne, Mrs. A. Wirtz, Mrs. George K. French, Mrs. William A. Purdy, Mrs. Ralph Johnstone and Mrs. S. W. Smith.

Program—Mrs. A. Lewis, Jr., Mrs. Frank Atherton and Mrs. Elizabeth Mackall.

Table committee—Mrs. F. E. Blake, Mrs. Edward Dekum, Mrs. Edward M. Watson, Mrs. G. Fred Bush, Mrs. St. C. Sayres and Mrs. Edwin Benner.

MRS. EDITH BERGER HONORED Mrs. Edith Berger, who has been away from Honolulu for the past four years and who has recently returned for an indefinite stay, was the complimented guest on Thursday at a very informal tea given by Mrs. Albert Waterhouse at the Country Club. Mrs. Waterhouse's guests were Mrs. Edith Berger, Mrs. Ernest Kopke, Mrs. J. Walter Jones, Mrs. Wallace R. Farrington, Mrs. Ernest A. Ross, Miss Hennigan and Mrs. Sherwood Lowrey.

MME. MELBA AT KUALOA

Madame Nellie Melba was the guest of honor at the Swaney home at Kualoa last Sunday for a day in the country. An early morning start brought the guests to the country estate in due time and the day was one of great pleasure and gaiety. The return trip was made in time for a town dinner.

MISS FLORENCE DENNISON'S LUNCHEON

Miss Florence Dennison is entertaining a dozen guests at luncheon at her home today.

JUDGE AND MRS. WILLIAM WHITNEY'S DINNER Judge and Mrs. William Whitney entertained a dozen guests at dinner on Thursday evening.

COMINGS AND GOINGS OF THE SMART SET

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Schaefer are planning a dinner for next week.

The Pacific Club is planning a large dinner dance for the evening of February 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Focke left on the Wilhelmina for a trip to the Volcano.

Mrs. Charles Chillingworth is entertaining on Monday with a small informal tea.

Mr. and Mrs. William Williamson left on a hasty Volcano trip by the Wilhelmina.

Col. and Mrs. James B. Houston are planning a party for the last part of next week.

Miss Helen Alexander is to be hostess at an informal party on Sunday of next week.

Miss Minnie Chipman of the College of Hawaii will be an arrival next Tuesday by the Manoa.

Mrs. W. O. Smith entertained ten guests at luncheon at Laniakena on Wednesday of this week.

Miss Harriet Lucas, Miss Jessie Kennedy and Miss Mary Lucas went to the Volcano this week.

Mr. Harry Macfarlane is entertaining at a dinner at the Country Club on Tuesday of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Giffard and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth left on the Wilhelmina for a Volcano trip.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Gordon Maury have moved from their former Young street residence and are now at 247 Beach Walk.

Mrs. Robert Shingle is giving a luncheon on Tuesday of next week for 18 guests, honoring Mrs. George Beckley.

President and Mrs. Fred J. Koster of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce were Volcano-bound passengers on the Wilhelmina.

Mrs. Robert Shingle is giving a luncheon on Tuesday of next week honoring Mrs. George Beckley, who has recently returned from the mainland.

Col. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Atkinson are leaving Honolulu on the February transport after a three-years' stay in the islands. Both have endeared themselves to all who have had the pleasure of meeting them, and their going is a distinct loss to Honolulu. One can only hope that some day they will come this way again.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams are entertaining with a theater supper and dance next Tuesday evening after the Peggy Center concert. The supper is to be at Helmle's.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Tenney were among the passengers who left on the Wilhelmina to view the Volcano, which at the present time is a wonderful and fascinating sight.

Among recent arrivals in Honolulu is Mrs. Benjamin C. Woodbury, wife of Dr. Woodbury of 435 Beretania street. Dr. and Mrs. Woodbury formerly resided in Portsmouth, N. H.

Mrs. James D. Houston is entertaining on Wednesday of next week at the Country Club, with a luncheon honoring her sister, Miss Caroline Hughtitt. Covers will be placed for 24 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Grace of Santa Rosa are enjoying their visit to Honolulu. Having many friends here has made their stay a delightful one. They plan to be here a month longer.

This week Mme. Melba has had to refrain from social engagements owing to a bad cold. Next week will be a busy one for this very popular woman has many engagements to keep her busy. Peggy Center's concert being the principal event on the program.

A very pleasant story is told of Capt. John Thomas of Schofield showing his love for dumb animals. One of the army horses he was fond of was condemned recently and last week was sold at auction in Honolulu with many others. Capt. Thomas heard at the last minute that the auction was to be that morning. He hastened to town in his motor, coming in from Schofield in three-quarters of an hour, to find the horse sold. But the owner is evidently as merciful to dumb creatures as is Capt. Thomas and he promised the best kind of treatment and said if ever he wanted to sell the horse he would notify Capt. Thomas and let him buy the animal back again.

Fastidious Men

Expect Faultless Hand Work on Full Dress Shirts and Collars

We wash and iron with painstaking care and skill—our reputation is at stake as much as your comfort and satisfaction—so that faultless results and nothing less is the rule around this laundry.

All work done under the proprietor's personal supervision.

French Laundry

DYEING AND CLEANING WORKS

J. ABADIE, Prop.

1491

Phones

2919

"Quality First"

Three Monday Specials of exceptional values and interest

Draperies

A large assortment of colorings and designs in some discontinued patterns. Regularly priced at 25c to 50c.

Monday Special at 12 1-2c. to 30c.

Street Dresses

of Serge and Satin combination tastily embroidered in contrasting shade. Navy and Black only.

Monday Special $7.50.

One-piece

Silk Poplin Dresses

Colors: Navy, Purple, Tan, Grey, Brown and Reseda.

Monday Special $7.50.

Children's "Koveralls"

The best play suit made. Reliable materials and absolute The best play-suit made. Reliable materials and absolutely fast colors.

Sold at Mainland price of 85c.

Whitney and Marsh

"The House of Monday Specials"

1045 Fort Street

Phone 1725

Have you met NINA and her sisters, from Paris?

Distinctive Paris Originalities

Importations from Paris of Gowns, Dresses.

First Showing of Spring Millinery, Monday

FASHION CO., INC.
Fort at Beretania.